

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Praxis Engineering Distinguished by Baltimore Magazine as one of the “Best Places to Work 2011”

(Annapolis Junction, MD) January 24, 2011 -- Praxis Engineering, a leading provider of software development and system engineering solutions to the Federal Government, was named by Baltimore Magazine as one of the “Best Places to Work 2011”.

“Not only is this an honor, to be recognized by Baltimore Magazine, but more importantly it validates and supports our focus on the success, both personally and professionally of our employees,” states Bill Dunahoo, Co-Founder and President of Praxis Engineering. “We are very pleased to see this focus recognized.”

“We are very appreciative that Baltimore Magazine has selected Praxis to receive this honor,” says Mark Klein, Co-Founder and Executive Vice-President of Praxis Engineering. “Our employees are our company and we need to continually provide an environment that helps them achieve their objectives.”

“Best Places to Work 2011” appears in the February issue of Baltimore Magazine. Starting February 1, you can also visit www.baltimoremagazine.net to see the companies that made this year’s list and to learn more about the selection criteria.
