Praxis Engineering Charity Golf Outing Raises $18,800 for the Maryland Food Bank

(Annapolis Junction, MD) May 5, 2011 -- Praxis Engineering, a leading provider of software development and system engineering solutions to the Federal Government, recently held its 4th Annual Charity Golf Tournament to benefit the Maryland Food Bank.

This year's outing was held at Compass Pointe (Pasadena, MD) with over 200 golfers participating and helping to raise a total of $18,800. Bill Dunahoo, President of Praxis Engineering, said: "We are very excited about the response we had for this year's Praxis Charity Golf Outing, and even more excited by the amount of money that this response generated." Mr. Dunahoo continued: "It was a great pleasure to have Paula Minsk, Chief Development Officer for the Maryland Food Bank, present to receive the check and talk about the amazing work they are doing."

Mark Klein, Executive Vice President of Praxis Engineering, added: "None of this would have been possible without the help and generosity of our sponsors and participants. We thank them for making this such a successful event. This donation will allow the Maryland Food Bank to provide over 37,000 meals to Marylanders in need."

Paula Minsk, Chief Development Officer for the Maryland Food Bank stated: "We are incredibly grateful for Praxis Engineering's gift. Efforts such as this make it possible for the Maryland Food Bank to continue our mission of leading the effort to end hunger in Maryland. On behalf of all those we serve, thank you."
